Reminiscences of Toronto Orangeism

By W. BRO. HARRY LOVELOCK, County Master

THE preparation of a paper dealing with the institution and progress of the Orange Order in the city of Toronto is a task which I could have wished had fallen to some brother more competent and familiar with the Order in its early days. It is to be regretted that the early records of our Order are not obtainable, and that we are deprived of much that would interest the generation of the present day. I am, therefore, compelled to pass over the period of the inception of the Order in Toronto in 1831 up to 1835 other than the granting of a dispensation to Nassau, L.O.L., No. 4. This dispensation has a place on the walls of the County Orange Hall.

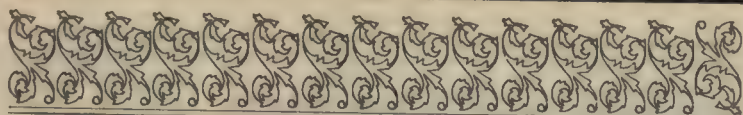

The only complete records which I have been able to find are those of L.O.L., No. 137, which was organized on February 10, 1835, with the Grand Master of Upper Canada in the chair, Ogle R. Gowan, Esq., M.P. Brother John Armstrong (whose name the lodge still bears) was elected W.M., and the following joined the lodge on that evening: Messrs. Stanous Daniels, of Church street, innkeeper; John Watkins, Hospital street, carter; John Dwyer, King street, shopman; Edward Smith, Upper Lott street, yeoman; Johnston H. Hamilton, King street, land agent and scrivener.

No business seems to have been transacted at this meeting other than the initiation of candidates, reception of certificates, and the election of officers.

On May 29, 1835, the following resolution was passed:

“Proposed by Brother Hamilton, seconded by Brother James Ashfield, and carried unanimously: That it is the opinion of this lodge that there should not be any public procession of the brethren on the approaching anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne, but that we do meet and celebrate same by dining together in our lodge room, at the hour of 6 o'clock p.m.”

REMINISCENCES OF TORONTO ORANGEISM

The minutes of this lodge show that there was much activity in increasing the membership roll, for initiations were in order every meeting night. The following was about the usual routine of each meeting: Minutes of meeting held February 5, 1838; the lodge opened with prayer; Lecture dispensed with; Samuel Manning proposes Horace Wilcox, seconded by John Ginty; John Earls proposes Jacob Bastedo, seconded by John Browne; John Browne proposes John Rolston, seconded by Thomas Armstrong; William Davis proposes John Argue, seconded by R. H. Trotter; James McDonough initiated; dues collected, £3 7½d; expended, £1 10s 7½d; balance, £1 10s; the lodge closed with prayer; John Browne, secretary.

For many years the question of turning out in procession on the 12th of July was a bone of contention in L.O.L. 137, and upon a vote being taken every meeting previous to the 12th non-processionists gained the day. The District Lodge seemed determined to force them to parade, for on March 2, 1858, we find a resolution was passed ordering the treasurer of the lodge to pay the fine (under protest) inflicted upon them by the District for not turning out on the 12th of July, and that an appeal be made to the Grand Lodge against the District order. On June 1, in the same year, the lodge unanimously decided to go out in procession on the approaching 12th of July, and on July 6 a resolution was passed that any member absenting himself from the 12th of July parade be fined 10 shillings. This seems to have been the first time since the organization of the lodge that they appeared on parade, they always having celebrated the day by a dinner in the evening. This lodge was known as Armstrong L.O.L. 137, or "The Toronto Dandies."

On August 3, 1858, the then Grand Master, Hon. John Hillyard Cameron, was seeking Parliamentary honors, and we find L.O.L. No. 137 passing the following resolution:

"That it is the opinion of this meeting that any brother voting against Brother Cameron at the coming election is not worthy the name of an Orangeman, and should be expelled from the institution."

On reference to the records of Nassau L.O.L. No. 4, the earliest available beginning May 5, 1845, we find that the lodge was presided over by Brother A. De-grassi, but the place of meeting is not designated. At that meeting the receipts were 17s 6d for dues, and the amount paid for refreshments was 9s 1d, leaving a balance of 8s 5d to go to the lodge chest. It will, therefore, be seen that "the chest" was the lodge's bank. Like L.O.L. No. 137, the item for refreshments was a regular monthly one, the expenditure often exceeded the

Dear Madam: -Unsolicited we think it fair to inform you that your College has so far been the only institution that could fulfil our wants for Stenographers and Typewriters, as, although we have tried three other Colleges, we have had very poor success, and have in each instance been willing to wait on you some days rather than take chances on Colleges sending us Stenographers that either were sent out before proficient, or their mode of instruction had been of such a nature that proficiency would be out of the question in nearly every case. Your system of individual instruction must be very complete to enable your pupils to emerge from your College with such proficiency as we have been pleased to find with Stenographers sent us.

Wishing you every success,

Yours truly,

receipts, and our brethren seem to have done little else in those days other than make Orangemen and then entertain them royally at the refreshment board.

On October 6, 1845, we were able to discover the meeting-place of Old No. 4, which was in Brother John Michaels', but the location is not given. At the same meeting two brethren were expelled for neglecting two regular summonses—which shows that the laws were strictly enforced in those days.

At that time the custom followed at the election of officers was for the W. M. to leave the room, and he was then re-elected, and again introduced to the brethren, when he elected the balance of the officers—for, be it remembered, those were the times when the Master held a lease of the chair for many years.

Resolutions admonishing the brethren how to vote were in order, for we find the following in a minute-book :

"Moved, seconded, and carried unanimously, that the members of this lodge (No. 4) vote for an Orangeman at the coming municipal elections, if there be one in the field."

This resolution could be carried out now without any difficulty.

Then, as now, the liquor question was a matter of comment among the lodges, and we find Nassau Lodge passing the following resolution at its meeting on July 12, 1846 :

"That any member found under the influence of liquor on that day be handed over to the committee."

But on July 13, the following day, we find an extra meeting of the lodge was held, and the following is an exact copy of the minutes of said meeting :

"A special meeting of L.O.L. No. 4, July 13, 1846. Dues collected, 8s 1½d; for private drinks on 12th of July, 10d; total, 8s 11½d; to cash for drinks, 9s 9½d; to 1 gallon beer, 2s 6d; 1 pint whiskey, 7½d."

Whether this implies that only 10d was spent for drink privately on the 12th of July and the balance at the extra meeting, is an open question, but no record is made of any brother being "handed over to the committee."

HOSPITALITY OF THE LODGES.

The hospitable character of this lodge seems to have necessitated the preparing of a code of by-laws, for we find that rules were adopted for the conduct of the brethren during lodge refreshments, from which we extract the following :

1. "No person not a member of the Orange Institution shall be admitted into the room during the time refreshments are being served."

2. "All visiting brethren shall be entitled to refreshments free of charge on the first night, but on each visit afterwards shall pay the sum of 7½d, to be applied to the refreshment fund."

On May 5, 1851, the lodge voted the sum of 25 shillings from the lodge chest to a Brother Stenile, to release him "from trouble and some difficulties."

Whatever material the regalia may have been made of in those days, it is difficult to conjecture, but we find a resolution passed ordering that the badges of the lodge "be washed."

On or about August 1, 1853, the brethren were imbued with a warlike spirit, for a bill was presented to L.O.L. No. 4 by the W. M. for guns supplied to the men who went to Hamilton on July 13, when it was ordered "that the lodge pay for 30 members on their books at the rate of 8½d per man for the loss sustained by Brother James Ashfield in supplying guns for the men who went to Hamilton on July 13." For what purpose the guns were used is not stated.

January 29, 1855, found Nassau L.O.L. No. 4 in a new home located in Brother Mack's "New House," in Nelson street, where some radical changes were made in the government of the lodge, which had hitherto been so liberal in dispensing alcoholic beverage, as a resolution was passed that "this become a temperance lodge, and " Proposed, seconded and carried, that this lodge have sandwiches and strong beer and ginger-beer provided for their refreshment on the Green on July 13," and on August 13 a bill amounting to £2 was paid for the said refreshments.

On the occasion of the visit of the Prince of Wales (now King Edward VII) to the city in 1860, the following resolution was passed by L.O.L. No. 4 :

"That the Loyal Orangemen of this city are under many obligations to the gallant members of the Fire Brigade for their praiseworthy co-operation with them on all public occasions, more particularly during the late visit of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, on which occasion we were proud to observe the Orange rosette on the left breast of each Orange fireman in the procession, for which we beg to tender our hearty thanks."

October 6, 1862, sees the brethren of No. 4 engaged in a game of chance, for we find this resolution : " Moved by Brother Hugh Garrity, seconded by Brother John Millichamp : That Brother Alexander Burns, John Burns and Thomas Pearcey be a committee to throw at the raffle for King William III." As no report seems to have been made by the committee as to the results, it must be presumed that they were not successful in securing the prize.

On December 5, 1864, when the lodge met in "Yonge Street Nassau Orange Hall," which was located about where the News office now is, we find recorded the following: "In consequence of the lodge room being broken into by a band of conspirators known as Hibernians, Fenians, or Ribbonmen, either on Saturday or Sunday night, this lodge dispensed with reading a chapter of the Holy Bible, which is the usual custom. The hall, on entering it this evening, was found to be broken into, and a large amount of property destroyed, as well as a sum of money belonging to this lodge abstracted (about $15), and our banner cut in two places, and other banners belonging to other lodges totally destroyed, and warrants broken, and papers and certificates strewn about the lodge-room floor, and the Bible trampled upon."

A deputation waited upon the City Council, then in session, apprising them of the fact; whereupon it was voted in Council that a reward of $500 be given for the apprehension of the thief or thieves.

After the Council was adjourned a large number of the city fathers repaired to the scene of destruction, including His Worship the Mayor, Brother F. H. Medcalf; James Bennett, William Strachan, J. E. Smith, T. Thompson, John Baxter, and others, together with the Globe and Leader reporters, all of whom spoke in condemnatory terms of the Fenians, and counselled the brethren to do no rash acts.

There are many other items of interest that might prove instructive along the same lines as above set out, but these will doubtless be sufficient to give you an idea of how business was transacted in two of the oldest lodges in the County of Toronto.

I shall now proceed to take up the formation of the present County Lodge of Toronto, which took place in the village of Holland Landing, on February 1859, when the York County Orange Lodge was divided into four counties, namely East, West, and North York, and the City of Toronto. There were 96 brethren present, which was the largest meeting ever held of the County of York. After the usual preliminary opening exercises and the transaction of routine business, the following resolution was passed unanimously:

Moved by Brother Rev. Henry Bath Osler, seconded by Brother Harcourt Potter Gowan:

"That, whereas the supreme authority of the Order in British America has given the liberty to counties which may be composed of one or more electoral divisions to erect such electoral division into an Orange county of itself, to be known by the name which said division is in law termed; and whereas this county contains within its limits four electoral divisions, and sends five members to Parliament, that for the more immediate and effectual carrying out of this resolution, the officers belonging to the lodges in the several electoral divisions, viz.: North York, East York, West York and Toronto, do now retire and elect county officers for the current Orange year for their respective counties."

W. BRO. FRANK E. LLOYD
COUNTY TREASURER, TORONTO

THE NOTICE CALLING FIRST MEETING.

The following advertisement, published in the Patriot, called together the first County meeting in Toronto of the Toronto County Lodge :

ANNUAL MEETING.

Whereas, it is ordained by the Constitution and Laws of the Loyal Orange Institution of British America that the annual meeting of each County Lodge shall be held on the first Monday in February, in each year, at such place as may have been appointed at the previous meeting ; and, whereas, it was, amongst other matters, resolved at the annual meeting for 1859 of the County Lodge of York, then comprising the East, North, and West Riding of said county, and the City of Toronto, that each electoral division in said county was of right entitled to, and should possess, a County Lodge of its own for its better internal government, such County Lodge to exercise all the rights, powers and privileges pertaining to other County Lodges of the Institution,

BOWS TO STYLE

YEARS ago laces, slippers and frills were all the go. Nowadays it's neatness in preference to foppery. Our clothing is modern in style and the exemplification of neatness. Our prices are reasonable bordering upon economy.

The best dressers approve the line of excellent things we offer.

provided the same should meet the approval and ratification of the Supreme authority.

Notice is hereby given to all whom it may concern that such approval and ratification has been duly received. And in accordance with the vote of the last meeting of this County Lodge, the annual meeting for 1860 will be held in the George Street Orange Hall, in this city, on Monday, the 6th day of February next, commencing at half-past seven o'clock p m. Of all which every brother concerned will take notice and govern himself accordingly. The lodge will, as usual, be opened on the Royal Arch Purple Mark Degree.

FRANCIS H. MEDCALF, W.M. 275,

County Master, Toronto.

HARCOURT P. GOWAN, W.M. No. 4,

County Secretary.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.

LODGES COMPOSING COUNTY OF TORONTO

The lodges composing the County of Toronto, therefore, in 1859 were Nos. 4, 136, 137, 140, 212, 275, 287, 301, 328, 375, 387, 396, 404, 506, 551, 588, 621, 657, and 781, with a total membership of 1,140, or an average of about 60 members to each lodge, which is above the average of the present day, it now being about 55 to the lodge.

BRETHREN PRESENT AT MEETING

The first County Lodge of Toronto was officered as follows :

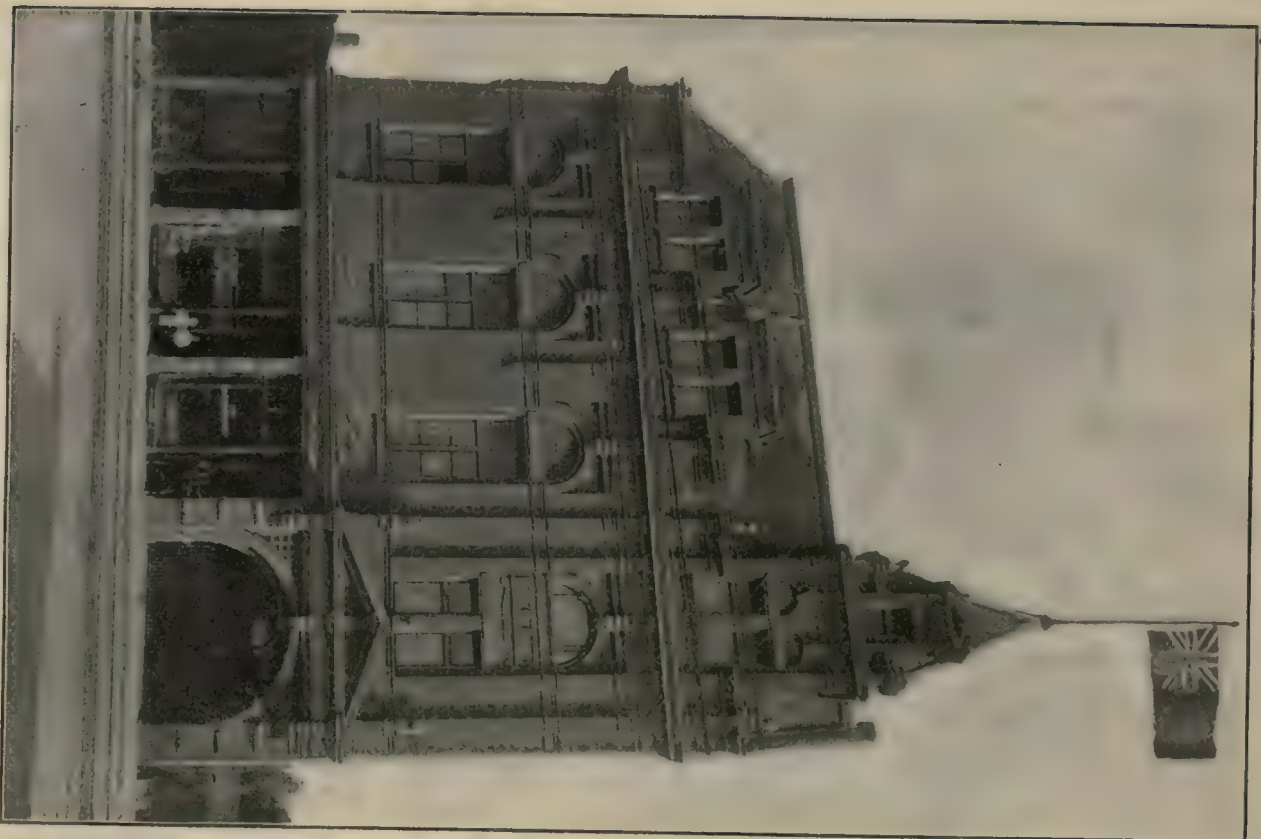

W. Brothers Francis H. Medcalf, 275, W.C.M. ; James Burns, 4, D.C.M. ; Robert Bell, 387, chaplain ; Harcourt P. Gowan, 4, secretary ; John Carr, treasurer ; W. Nichols, director of ceremonies ; John Rogers, county proxy.

Brother Medcalf filled the County chair up to May, 1861, when he resigned, having been elected Grand Master of the new-formed Grand Lodge of Ontario West. Brother James Burns, of L.O.L., No. 4, was then elected and conducted to the chair, but immediately resigned, after thanking the brethren. Rev. Brother Dr. Freeland was then elected, but only filled the office for a few months, when he was called from the city, and his resignation accepted.

W. Brother William Adamson succeeded him, and occupied the chair from 1861 to January 1880, a period of 19 years, when he was succeeded by W. Brother E. F. Clarke, followed by W. Brothers Frank Somers, William Bell, H. A. E. Kent, J. L. Hughes, John McMillan, W. D. McPherson, and John Hewitt.

Doubtless the names of the brethren who were present at the first meeting and the lodge they represented will prove interesting. They are as follows :

Brother F. H. Medcalf in the chair ; Brothers Rev. Stephen Lett, LL.D., Grand Chaplain ; John Wilson, W.M. 396 ; George Simpson, W.M. 137 ; William

Visitors: Brothers J. H. Busteed, 551; John Gibson, 301; T. M. Daly, M P.P., 387; and others, making 47 members present.

On February 16, 1860, a resolution was passed regretting that the Orange Society had been divided into so many Grand Lodges, "believing it to be injurious to the well-being of the Order," and its representatives to the higher bodies had to pledge themselves to do all they could to abolish them.

DISTRICT LODGE SUBDIVIDED.

On December 29, 1875, the District Lodge of Toronto was divided into three districts, and the Parliamentary division of the House of Commons constituted the territorial limits of such districts, and that they be named Central (first), East (second), West (third). Carried.

At a special meeting of the County Lodge, held on June 8, 1876, a resolution was adopted ordering the uniform dress to be worn on July 12 to be white pants and vest, black coat and hat. This remained the standard uniform for many years. At this meeting, also, the County Master was ordered to take steps to prevent any intoxicating liquors being brought on the grounds.

In the year 1878 the ballot was introduced into our lodge, the results of which have been most beneficial. The County Lodge also adopted by-laws, and the much-maligned Executive Committee was instituted and the quarterly meetings of the County Lodge provided for, as well as the levying of a per capita tax on the members for county and benevolent purposes.

THE NEW COUNTY HALL.

The year 1881 saw the launching of the Orange Hall project, which had so often before been attempted, but without success, and night after night the Executive

REMINISCENCES OF TORONTO ORANGEISM

Committee of the County Lodge, headed by their County Master, Brother E. F. Clarke, visited the various lodges and urged along the work, soliciting subscriptions, etc.; and in 1885, when the chair was occupied by Brother Frank Somers, the County Orange Hall was built, and the lodge of which Brother Somers is a member—140—was the first to meet in the new hall.

Since the building of the County Orange Hall the Order in Toronto has had a much firmer footing, and to-day it stands as a tower of strength in the community, and its members are found among the leading men of our city. At no time in the history of the Order has there been a greater desire to show to the world that our cause is a necessity; and it is most gratifying to know that the response is very hearty in the increasing membership which is being reported throughout the city.

In closing these few disjointed notes I have to apologize for their incompleteness. The time at my disposal is very limited, as my official duties as County Master are at present exceedingly heavy. There are many items of interest which could be given and much information gleaned from old sources, and when I have more time at my disposal I shall endeavor to collect much that will interest, and, if spared, communicate it to the society of to-day—in which my deepest interests lie.

E. J. COBEAN

The subjoined cut is considered a fair reproduction of the features of Ed. J. Cobean, Esq., the genial general manager of the Hygiene Kola Co., who, by his pleasing personality and probity in business, has succeeded in the short space of two years in building up a trade which now extends from Halifax to Vancouver. Six travellers are now on the road, and Kola Tonic Wine has become a household necessity from one end of the Dominion to the other.

On another page will be found particular mention of Kola Tonic Wine, which will be found of great interest. Read it and afterwards try it and convince yourself that Ed. Cobean has an article of merit.
